

- Translation -

Enterprise-wide Risk Management Policy

---

Bangchak Sriracha Public Company Limited appoints executives and employees in various departments to oversee risks. They must play a role and participate in development. Organizational risk management and an understanding of the duties and responsibilities related to risk management.

Establish an effective risk management process in every step of operations. According to the principles of good corporate governance and integrating risk management with the corporate strategic planning process. and information technology management for good management to help reduce the chance and the impact of risks on overall operations and increase your chances of success.

Implement and support successful risk management across the organization by effectively using limited resources to appropriately identify, assess and manage risks.

Executives and employees at all levels in the organization including joint venture companies Participate in the operation of a standardized risk management system to achieve common business goals. and in line with the policy of sustainable business development along with the environment and society and corporate governance.

This policy, executives, employees, and temporary employees of the company including external agencies that provide services to the company. Must understand and follow with strict policy guidelines.

Mr. Bandit Hansapaiboon
Chief Executive Officer
January 2024

---